

Lead Toddler Teacher

Little Laurels Montessori Preschool is looking for a Lead Toddler teacher who loves working with toddlers and is seeking a peaceful, collaborative, and successfully growing school in which to pursue their career goals in early childhood education. This room staffs 1 Lead AND 2 Assistants for a maximum of 11 toddlers. Yes, you read that correctly... a teacher: child ratio of 1:3 or 1:4, except for break times.

You will not find a better environment for nurturing toddlers!

While our classrooms are led by certified Montessori Lead teachers, most assistants arrive with little to no working knowledge of Montessori principles, which is OK! Many stay on, acquire training and some eventually become fully certified and interned teachers with their own classrooms to lead.

We are looking for a teammate that is cheerful, focused and responsible. This is a full-time position, with shifts scheduled between 8am-4:30pm. We offer a well-rounded calendar with school day closures closely following that of the SPS, which gives our staff abundant time off to balance home and work life.

Our beautiful 1.7 acre campus is located in North Seattle; we have 3 playgrounds, abundant parking, plenty of trees and wild open spaces. You can learn more about our school at www.littlelaurels.org
